

INFORMATION THAT MAY HELP GET AN UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH POSITION

Faculty member:

Last Name MEDLER

First Name: SCOTT

1. What do you look for in a potential undergraduate researcher?

Good grades, desire for research experience, ability to work independently, interest in physiology.

2. What are the best times of the year for students to look for a spot in your lab?

Late Fall/Spring semester

3. What do you expect from an undergraduate researcher?

Commitment to work, keeping a regular schedule, do their best.

4. What can the student expect to be doing in your lab?

Protein gels, Western blots, exercise animals, PCR, enzyme assays

5. What is the best way to approach you about getting research in your lab?

The best way to approach is via email - smedler@buffalo.edu

6. What kind of repayment can the student expect?

Course credit, work study

7. If course credit is given, what does it take to get an A?

3 hourst woirk per 1 hour credit. Be focused and serious about work.

8. Do you have room in your lab now, or foreshadow when you will?

Probably Spring semester